Objective and Characteristics of the Fund

Objective of the Fund

The Fund invests in shares of the component stocks in the Tokyo Stock Exchange Price Index (TOPIX) and structures its portfolio in line with the TOPIX calculation method. As a rule, by maintaining this portfolio structure, the Fund seeks to achieve a high level of linkage between the NAV and the movements of the index.

* TOPIX is an index calculated based on the aggregate market value of all stocks listed on the First Section of Tokyo Stock Exchange after free float adjustment. The calculation method bases the aggregate market value as of the close on January 4, 1968 at 100, and expresses subsequent aggregate market values as index values.

The continuity of the index is ensured by adjusting the aggregate market value for paid-in capital increases, new listing, delisting, etc. to eliminate the impact of fluctuations in the market capitalization resulting from non-market factors. TOPIX is Japan's leading index and is well recognized abroad.

$$\text{TOPIX} = \frac{\text{Market capitalization at the time of calculation (in yen)}}{\text{Market capitalization on the base date (in yen)}} \times 100$$

Copyrights and Other Rights of TOPIX

- The index value and trademark of TOPIX are intellectual property of Tokyo Stock Exchange Group, Inc. All rights concerning the stock index, including its computation, publication and use of the index values, as well as all rights concerning the TOPIX trademark belong to Tokyo Stock Exchange Group, Inc.
- Tokyo Stock Exchange Group, Inc. may change the methods of, or suspend, the calculation or publication of the TOPIX index value. Furthermore, it may change the TOPIX trademark or suspend use thereof.
- Tokyo Stock Exchange Group, Inc. does not guarantee or make any representation as to any results obtained in connection with the use of the TOPIX trademark.
- Tokyo Stock Exchange Group, Inc. does not guarantee as to the accuracy or completeness of the TOPIX index values or any data contained therein. Furthermore, Tokyo Stock Exchange Group, Inc. is not liable for any errors, delays or interruptions in connection with the calculation or publication of the TOPIX index values.
- This Fund is managed to achieve the investment objective to provide investment return which closely correlates with the movements of the TOPIX index values. Nevertheless, the NAV of the Fund may at times deviate from TOPIX.
- This Fund is not offered, guaranteed or distributed by Tokyo Stock Exchange Group, Inc.
- Tokyo Stock Exchange Group, Inc. is under no obligation to provide investors in the Fund or the general public with information or any investment advice with respect to the Fund.
- Notwithstanding anything stated above, Tokyo Stock Exchange Group, Inc. shall not be liable for any damages arising out of the issuance, sale or purchase of Units in the Fund.

Characteristics of the Fund

While the Fund is a contractual-type investment trust, it is structured differently from ordinary investment trusts with respect to the following points:

- ① Units are listed on Tokyo Stock Exchange and can be traded at any time during trading hours.
 - Units may be traded in blocks of 100 units (as of the date when the securities registration statement was filed).
 - Brokers determine brokerage commissions.
 - The method of trading is generally the same as that for stocks.
 - * Please contact your broker for further information.

- ② Units are subscribed by delivering stocks.

The integer multiple for subscription units are set by dividing the market value of the units stock valuation by the NAV of the day on which the subscription is accepted (rounded up to the nearest 100 units).

*“The Units” are all the stocks designated by the management companies for each name in the TOPIX (Tokyo Stock Price Index) universe.

- ③ Units may not be redeemed for cash before maturity with a request for exchange.

- ④ Units may be exchanged for stocks.

*The TOPIX component stocks selected upon subscription do not necessarily fully match the stocks selected upon exchange

*The number of Units created upon subscription does not necessarily match the number of units required upon exchange.

Investment Restrictions

- There is no restriction on the investment ratio in stocks.
- The Fund invests mainly in shares of the component stocks of TOPIX. However, this does not apply to stocks that are acquired through shareholder allotments.
- The Fund does not invest in assets denominated in foreign currencies.

Distribution Policy

- As a general rule, the full amount of dividends and other income arising from the trust assets is distributed after deduction of expenses.

*There is no guarantee on the payment or the amount of dividend.

Investment Risks

The major risks associated with investment in the Fund are outlined below. Investors should ensure they carefully examine and understand fully these risks before deciding to subscribe to units of the Fund.

Factors that contribute NAV volatility

Investors are not guaranteed the investment principal that they commit. Investors may incur a loss and the value of their investment principal may fall below par as the result of a decline in NAV. All profits and losses arising from investments in the Fund belong to the investors (beneficiaries). This fund is different from saving deposit.

The Fund invests primarily in stocks. The NAV of the Fund may fall and investors may suffer a loss due to a decline in stock prices or deterioration in the financial conditions and business performance of an equity issuer.

Major risks are as follows:

Price Fluctuation Risk

- Stock prices fluctuate due to the changes in the information of the company's growth and profitability, and any changes in such information. They also fluctuate as they are affected by economic and political conditions in Japan and abroad. There is a risk that the Fund may incur material losses if unexpected changes occur in stock price movements or liquidity.

Liquidity Risk

- There is a risk that the Fund will incur unexpected losses when the market size or trading volumes is small. The purchase and sale prices of securities are influenced by the trading volume, resulting in the inability of the Fund to sell certain stocks in its portfolio at prices that are expected to be realized in light of the prevailing market trend, that a security can sold as appraised, or that the transaction volume is limited regardless of the price levels.

Credit Risk

- There is a risk that the Fund will incur material losses in the event of a crisis that directly or indirectly affects the business of a corporation in which the Fund invests. The prices of stocks of issuers may substantially decline (possibly to zero) due to fears of default or corporate bankruptcy, which can contribute to decline in the Fund's NAV.

Security-lending Risk

- Lending of securities is accompanied by counterparty risks, which are the risks of default or cancellation of lending agreements as a result of bankruptcy, etc., of the counterparties. As a result, there is a risk that the Fund will suffer unexpected losses. Following the default or cancellation of a lending agreement, when liquidation procedures are implemented by using the collateral that is set aside in the lending agreement, the procurement cost of buying back the securities can surpass the collateral value, due to price fluctuations in the market. In such cases, the Fund is required to pay the difference, which may cause the Fund to incur losses.

<Risk of Discrepancy between TOPIX and NAV>

This Fund seeks to match the NAV volatility with that of the TOPIX, however, we cannot guarantee that movements will be identical to those of the index for the following reasons:

The potential market impact from the trading, etc., of individual issues when portfolio adjustments are made due to changes in selected issues on the TOPIX or capital transfers, or costs borne by the Fund such as trust fees, brokerage commission, and audit costs, etc.;

- Dividends may be paid by stocks in the portfolio and fees may be earned for securities lent.
- When derivative transactions such as futures are made, there may be disparity between the price movements of all or some of such transactions and that of the TOPIX.

Discrepancy between the market prices at which stocks are traded on financial instruments exchanges and the NAV

The Fund is listed on the Tokyo Stock Exchange and the units are traded on that exchange. The market price of the units is affected primarily by the size of demand for the Fund, its performance, and how attractive it is to investors in comparison with their other investments. It is not possible to predict whether the units will sell in the market above or below the NAV.

*The factors that contribute to fluctuations in the NAV are not limited to those listed above.

Additional Considerations

- The provisions stipulated in Article 37-6 of the Financial Instruments and Exchange Act (the “cooling-off period”) are not applicable to Fund transactions.
- This Fund differs from deposits or insurance policies in that it is not protected by the Deposit Insurance Corporation of Japan or the Policyholders Protection Corporation of Japan. Furthermore, units purchased from registered financial institutions, such as banks, are exempted from compensation by the Japan Investor Protection Fund.

Risk Management System

- The departments in charge of risk management and compliance, which are independent from fund management departments, evaluate and analyze risks and performance, risk management, and monitor the status of legal compliance.
- To maintain an appropriate management system, the departments in charge of risk management and compliance report and make proposals to the committees associated with risk management and compliance, and instruct fund management departments to take corrective actions as necessary.

* The system described above is as of the end of July 2020, and may be subject to change in the future.

Securities lending

Lending Fee

Nikko Asset Management runs a securities lending program to enhance the net return of the fund for investors. Nikko Asset management receives the amount obtained by multiplying a lending fee on securities lent by a figure not exceeding 55%(50% excluding taxes) (55% (50% excluding taxes) as of the date of the filling of the securities registration statement) to cover all the operational costs of engaging in this activity for the fund.

The total amount of expenses of the Fund to be borne by investors varies according to holding length and investment status, and thus cannot be shown.

Tax Treatment

Tax treatment for individual investors

1) Taxation upon sale of Units

- Gains on sale (capital gains) are deemed to be income from transfer and thus have to be filed to declare for separate taxation at 20.315%. When a beneficiary has chosen a designated account with tax withholding (an account with tax withholding at the taxpayer's option), tax will be withheld at source at 20.315%. (As a rule, tax filing is not necessary.)

2) Taxation upon receipt of income distributions

- Income distributions are regarded as dividend income, and tax is withheld at source at 20.315%. (As a general rule, tax filing is not necessary.) You can also file a tax return, and choose either separated taxation, based on declaration, or consolidated taxation (under which the dividends received deduction is available).

3) Exchanges between Units and shares of stocks

- Exchanges of Units for stocks are treated as transfers of Units and are handled as selling of Units.

- By filing a tax return, you can offset losses upon sale (capital losses) against capital gains from listed stocks, dividends etc. from listed stocks, and interest income from public and corporate bonds and such like (as long as separated taxation has been chosen upon declaration). In addition, gains on sale (capital gains), income distributions, and interest income from public and corporate bonds etc. (if separated taxation has been chosen upon declaration) can be offset against capital losses from listed stocks and such like.

- When investing through a Nippon Individual Savings Account (NISA), income gains and capital gains from the investments in Publicly-offered Equity Investment Trusts will be tax-free for five years if the investments have been newly purchased within 1.2 million yen per year. Investors need to meet certain conditions, such as aged 20 or above, having opened a tax-free account at a Distributor. In addition, when investing through a Junior NISA, income gains and capital gains from the investments in Publicly-offered Equity Investment Trusts will be tax-free for the next five years for those under 20 years old as long as the newly purchased investment amount is less than 0.8 million yen every year. For further details, please contact a Distributor.

- In cases of being applied to the foreign tax deduction, tax on distributions may differ from the aforementioned descriptions.

- The aforementioned descriptions do not apply to Japanese corporations.

- Above tax rates are as of October 8, 2020, so those may change in the event that tax laws are revised. We recommend that investors consult a tax or similar specialist for details of tax treatment.
